NATIONAL MUSEUM OF THE UNITED STATES AIR FORCE®
1100 SPAATZ STREET
WRIGHT-PATTERSON AIR FORCE BASE, OHIO 45433-7102

The National Museum of the U.S. Air Force started the Memorial Park in 1971 as a way for units and individuals associated with the Air Force to be honored for their contributions to the Air Force. The park currently contains more than 500 memorials. Memorial Types currently available are:

- The Memorial Wall Bronze Plaques: The memorial Walls are located in the memorial Park and will hold up to 128 plaques each. Each plaque represents an individual or organization. Approximate cost of bronze plaque is $1,500-$2,000.
- Memorial Tree with Bronze Plaques: Memorial Trees are available in the Memorial Park. Tree memorials include a bronze ground plaque and cost for both is approximately $3,000-$4,050.
- Granite Memorial Benches: Granite Memorial Benches can be purchased and placed in the Memorial Park as part of your memorial or along walkways throughout the Museum grounds. Approximate cost for a bench is $3,500-$6,000.
- Large Memorials: The Memorial Park can accommodate some larger memorials. The cost of large memorials varies based on size, design, and material used. Larger memorials require special approval and handling. Groups inquiring about large memorials should work closely with the Memorial Park Manager for rules and requirements.

If you or your organization is interested in placing a memorial at the National Museum of the United States Air Force, the first step is to request an information packet. A packet can be obtained by contacting the Memorial Park Manager at the address above or by emailing nationalmuseum.mus@us.af.mil or by calling (937) 255-1712.

If you wish to meet with the Memorial Park Manager please call to schedule an appointment to ensure the best support possible.

Sincerely,

Memorial Park Manager
