

NOTE: this aircraft available for viewing upon request with NMUSAF. Contact NMUSAF.Loans@us.af.mil to inquire.

AEROSPACE VEHICLE: North American T-39A
SERIAL NUMBER: 60-3505

NMUSAF CATALOG NUMBER: 1985-375

CURRENT LOCATION: Air Force Flight Test
Museum, Edwards Air
Force Base, CA

CONDITION: Good

- Aircraft is externally complete
- No cockpit components or instruments remain.
- Includes 2 Pratt & Whitney J60-P3 engines

Please note...

Your organization must have an active loan account with NMUSAF to borrow this aerospace vehicle. If you currently have a loan account with us and are interested in borrowing this aerospace vehicle, please contact your loans POC or send an email to NMUSAF.Loans@us.af.mil.

If you do not have a loan account with us, please go to <https://www.nationalmuseum.af.mil/Collections/Loan-Program/> to learn more about our loan programs and whether your organization is eligible to participate.

T-39A s/n 60-3505 at Air Force Flight Test Museum, Edwards AFB

This North American CT-39A was flown to Edwards AFB in November 1985 from Bergstrom AFB, TX, where it had been performing VIP transport duties with the 12th Air Force Headquarters. The “CT” designation was assigned when the aircraft was converted to the utility transport role.

T-39A s/n 60-3505 at Air Force Flight Test Museum, Edwards AFB

T-39A s/n 60-3505 at Air Force Flight Test Museum, Edwards AFB

T-39A s/n 60-3505 at Air Force Flight Test Museum, Edwards AFB

T-39A s/n 60-3505 at Air Force Flight Test Museum, Edwards AFB

T-39A s/n 60-3505 at Air Force Flight Test Museum, Edwards AFB

